

American Corner Programs June 2008

Monday, June 2 at 3:30 pm

“American Teenagers,” a discussion in English by students of The American School Of Kinshasa

Monday, June 9 at 3:30 pm

“Good Governance: Ethics and Accountability” a discussion in French with:

Mr. Marie-André Mwila, President of the NGO “Toges Noires”

Mr. Henri Christin Longendja, President of the NGO “Committee for the Defense of Human Rights and Development”

Mr. Achille Kabongo, President of the NGO “Transparence Afrique”

Monday, June 16 at 3:30 pm

“American Literature” a discussion in French by Dr. Katya Thomas, Public Affairs Officer at the U.S. Embassy in Kinshasa.

Monday, June 23 at 3:30 pm

In honor of DRC National Independence Day, a panel discussion in French on “The DRC as a Nation: Where Do We Go From Here?” with:

Prof. Kiangu Sindani, Department of History, University of Kinshasa

Prof. Ferdinand Mushi, Managing Director of Saving Bank of the Congo (CADECO) and Professor at the Catholic Faculties of Kinshasa

Prof. Kalonji Ntalaja, Faculty of Economics, University of Kinshasa